DAILY GAZETTE.

From Gen. Burnside's Army.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Times.

CAMP NEAR FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Saturday, Nov. 22, 1862.

The army of the Potomac has probably never experienced two days and nights of greater discomfort than since they encamped near the Rappahannock on Wednesday. The symptoms of a storm, which were apparent during the march hither from Warrenton, led many to fear that bad weather would overtake us before we were established in camp. The day was drizzly, and the ground on which the various commands pitched their camps was already uncomfortably wet. During the night the wind prevailed from the southeast, and rain fell in considerable quantity. The temperature, however, was comparatively mild. Thursday morning the wind changed to the northeast, and blew a gale, accompanied with heavy showers of rain. Such of the troops as were fortunate enough to be located on sloping ground were less affected by the descending floods. But the greater portion of them, as is customary, sought the level plains extending back from the river, which have heretofore been used for planting purposes. The encampment of the ninth army corps occupied one of these plateaus, and strenuous efforts were made by the usual ditching to turn the water off into the road which divides the encampment. All efforts, however, proved unavailing, and last night nine-tenths of the whole corps slept in the water, or stood in the pouring rain ankle deep in mud around their smouldering camp-fires. The absence of all material for flooring, and of straw, obliged them to lie on the bare ground. Some few only were able to procure pine boughs to keep themselves out of the water.

The violence of the cold northeast gale which blew the rain into the open shelter tents, only large enough for two to lie under, added much to their discomfort. To-day the sky has been overcast, but we have had only one light shower, and the sun had a golden set, giving earnest of a goodly day to-morrow.

The river has risen considerably, but not enough to prevent fording. The army, no doubt, will be crossed on pontoon bridges, the materials for which are now arriving by transports at Potomac Creek. A part are already here.

The roads, of course, have been much damaged by the rain, and some parts of those we have been compelled to use for the last day or two, are already so badly cut up by deep holes and gullies as to be almost impassable.

The 100th Pennsylvania, Col. Lazure, has been employed in repairing the Bell-plain road.

The principal part of the forage for the army has been landed at Potomac Creek, and hauled thence in wagons. As soon as the railroad is in running order, that route will be substituted for all the supplies. The storm has somewhat retarded operations, but the work is being pushed vigorously forward. The railroad bridge over Potomac Run has to be rebuilt, but that will occupy but a few days.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

SUNDAY, Nov. 23.

Longstreet only is supposed to be in front of us, with a force not exceeding 40,000. Generals Burnside, Hooker and Franklin have just rode away from the headquarters of General Sumner. An additional force of artillery has been ordered in position, and by to-morrow morning, if deemed advisable, 250 pieces of artillery can open upon the doomed city. If a great battle should be fought here, the spectacle will be sublime beyond description. From many positions on either side of the river the whole struggle could be seen almost without the aid of a glass. Every movement of the rebels to-day, in throwing up redoubts and intrenchments, could be distinctly seen, and it will be vain for them to attempt to conceal their movements.

The signal corps, too, have just been provided with the most powerful glasses known to the service, and can discern the movements of forces for nearly fifty miles. In the approaching engagement we have almost everything to encourage us. A commander in whom we all trust; an army superior in many respects to any in the world; the advantage of position, the best range of hills for our artillery, and but seven miles distant from our base of supplies, while the rebels are at least sixty and will be daily in danger of having them cut off by expeditions up the York and Pamunky rivers, and no loyal city in our front to protect from being burned or sacked by an infuriated enemy. I can see no reason why we should not be completely successful. In some respects it would have been better to have fought them nearer Richmond, but as we were unable to reach Hanover Junction, we are compelled to accept battle wherever Gen. Lee is disposed to offer it.

The army, immense as it is, is laboring under one great disadvantage. It has not half cavalry enough. The most experienced officers in the army tell me we should have at least one regiment of cavalry to six of infantry. It is unnecessary to say that we have not half that. Even what we have is in a terribly bruised and crippled condition. The hoof disease or black tongue carry off or disable hundreds of fine horses every week. Strange to say, there is no horse medical director in the army; no ointments or medicines for crippled or diseased horses are provided by the quartermaster. Half, if not two-thirds, of the horses which are condemned as worthless could be restored if there was a medical department expressly for horses attached to the army. There is one consolation, however; the horses of the rebels are dying with the same disease, and I have not yet learned that they are provided with any more horse doctors than ourselves. But, gentlemen at the head of affairs, give this army more cavalry quickly, and provide each regiment with a competent farrier.

Right Grand Division, near Falmouth, Va., Monday, Nov. 24, 1862.

Still on the north bank of the Rappahannock! Upon the high bluffs, along a line of three miles, twenty-four of our guns point threateningly toward the enemy. In the ravines behind them a hundred more wait to be wheeled up and placed in position. Upon the hills south of the river, distant from three to five thousand yards, rebel guns confront them. Some are just visible over the crests of sharp ridges; some peer blackly through hastily-built earthworks; some almost hidden by great piles of brush. Already we count eighteen—the cannonading will unmask many more.

"Ah, what a sound will rise, how wild and dreary,
When the Death Angel touches these swift keys!
What loud lament and dismal miserere
Will mingle with their awful symphonies!

In front of our right batteries, but far below and hidden from them, the antique, narrow, half ruined village of Falmouth hugs the river. In front of the rebel batteries, in full view from both sides, the broad, well-to-do town of Fredericksburg, with its great factories, tall spires, and brick buildings, is a tempting target for our guns. The river which flows between (through Fredericksburg is half a mile below Falmouth) is now so narrow that a lad can throw a stone across.

Behind our batteries and their protecting hills rests the infantry of the Grand Division. Gen. Couch's corps occupies a crescent shaped valley—a symmetric natural amphitheater. It is all aglow nightly with a thousand camp-fires; and from the proscenium-hill of Gen. Howard's headquarters, forms a picture mocking all earthly canvass. Behind the rebel batteries, in the dense forest, their infantry occupies a line five miles long. By night, we just detect the glimmer of their fires; by day we see the tall slender columns of smoke curling up from their camps. Practiced eyes estimate their numbers from these indications at 40,000 or 50,000.

We have waited a week for the pontoon boats, though Gen. Burnside was promised they should be here simultaneously with his first corps. The brilliant idea of bringing them from Winchester, 65 miles over the muddy roads, is worthy the most eminent professor of the great art of How Not to Do It. Governmental minds were apparently ignorant that they could be floated down the Potomac to Belle Plains, only 8 miles from this point.

But last night they were within two miles, so they will not delay us much longer. A few hours will be sufficient for constructing the bridge.

Will the rebels fight the decisive battle here? Many of our officers believe they will. It seems improbable, for their only advantage is the obstacle they can interpose to our crossing the river; and while a part of our army is engaging them here, the rest may cross, above or below, and flank them. If they mean to risk a great battle we shall not complain; we are only eight miles from our water base.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail. Address,

DAILY GAZETTE.

From Gen. Burnside's Army.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Times.
CAMP NEAR FREDERICKSBURG, Va.,
Saturday, Nov. 22, 1862.

The army of the Potomac has probably never experienced two days and nights of greater discomfort than since they encamped near the Rappahannock on Wednesday. The symptoms of a storm, which were apparent during the march hither from Warrenton, led many to fear that bad weather would overtake us before we were established in camp. The day was drizzly, and the ground on which the various commands pitched their camps was already uncomfortably wet. During the night the wind prevailed from the southeast, and rain fell in considerable quantity. The temperature, however, was comparatively mild. Thursday morning the wind changed to the northeast, and blew a gale, accompanied with heavy showers of rain. Such of the troops as were fortunate enough to be located on sloping ground were less affected by the descending floods. But the greater portion of them, as is customary, sought the level plains extending back from the river, which have heretofore been used for planting purposes. The encampment of the ninth army corps occupied one of these plateaus, and strenuous efforts were made by the usual ditching to turn the water off into the road which divides the encampment. All efforts, however, proved unavailing, and last night nine-tenths of the whole corps slept in the water, or stood in the pouring rain ankle deep in mud around their smouldering camp-fires. The absence of all material for flooring, and of straw, obliged them to lie on the bare ground. Some few only were able to procure pine boughs to keep themselves out of the water.

The violence of the cold northeast gale which blew the rain into the open shelter tents, only large enough for two to lie under, added much to their discomfort. To-day the sky has been overcast, but we have had only one light shower, and the sun had a golden set, giving earnest of a goodly day to-morrow.

The river has risen considerably, but not enough to prevent fording. The army, no doubt, will be crossed on pontoon bridges, the materials for which are now arriving by transports at Potomac Creek. A part are already here.

The roads, of course, have been much damaged by the rain, and some parts of those we have been compelled to use for the last day or two, are already so badly cut up by deep holes and gullies as to be almost impassable.

The 100th Pennsylvania, Col. Lazure, has been employed in repairing the Bell-plain road.

The principal part of the forage for the army has been landed at Potomac Creek, and hauled thence in wagons. As soon as the railroad is in running order, that route will be substituted for all the supplies. The storm has somewhat retarded operations, but the work is being pushed vigorously forward. The railroad bridge over Potomac Run has to be rebuilt, but that will occupy but a few days.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

SUNDAY, Nov. 23.

Longstreet only is supposed to be in front of us, with a force not exceeding 40,000. Generals Burnside, Hooker and Franklin have just rode away from the headquarters of General Sumner. An additional force of artillery has been ordered in position, and by to-morrow morning, if deemed advisable, 250 pieces of artillery can open upon the doomed city. If a great battle should be fought here, the spectacle will be sublime beyond description. From many positions on either side of the river the whole struggle could be seen almost without the aid of a glass. Every movement of the rebels to-day, in throwing up redoubts and intrenchments, could be distinctly seen, and it will be vain for them to attempt to conceal their movements.

The signal corps, too, have just been provided with the most powerful glasses known to the service, and can discern the movements of forces for nearly fifty miles. In the approaching engagement we have almost everything to encourage us. A commander in whom we all trust; an army superior in many respects to any in the world; the advantage of position, the best range of hills for our artillery, and but seven miles distant from our base of supplies, while the rebels are at least sixty and will be daily in danger of having them cut off by expeditions up the York and Pamunky rivers, and no loyal city in our front to protect from being burned or sacked by an infuriated enemy. I can see no reason why we should not be completely successful. In some respects it would have been better to have fought them nearer Richmond, but as we were unable to reach Hanover Junction, we are compelled to accept battle wherever Gen. Lee is disposed to offer it.

The army, immense as it is, is laboring under one great disadvantage. It has not half cavalry enough. The most experienced officers in the army tell me we should have at least one regiment of cavalry to six of infantry. It is unnecessary to say that we have not half that. Even what we have is in a terribly bruised and crippled condition. The hoof disease or black tongue carry off or disable hundreds of fine horses every week. Strange to say, there is no horse medical director in the army; no ointments or medicines for crippled or diseased horses are provided by the quartermaster. Half, if not two-thirds, of the horses which are condemned as worthless could be restored if there was a medical department expressly for horses attached to the army. There is one consolation, however; the horses of the rebels are dying with the same disease, and I have not yet learned that they are provided with any more horse doctors than ourselves. But, gentlemen at the head of affairs, give this army more cavalry quickly, and provide each regiment with a competent farrier.

Right Grand Division, near Falmouth, Va.,
Monday, Nov. 24, 1862.

Still on the north bank of the Rappahannock! Upon the high bluffs, along a line of three miles, twenty-four of our guns point threateningly toward the enemy. In the ravines behind them a hundred more wait to be wheeled up and placed in position. Upon the hills south of the river, distant from three to five thousand yards, rebel guns confront them. Some are just visible over the crests of sharp ridges; some peer blackly through hastily-built earthworks; some almost hidden by great piles of brush. Already we count eighteen—the cannonading will unmask many more.

"Ah, what a sound will rise, how wild and dreary,
When the Death Angel touches these swift keys!
What loud lament and dismal miserere
Will mingle with their awful symphonies!

In front of our right batteries, but far below and hidden from them, the antique, narrow, half ruined village of Falmouth hugs the river. In front of the rebel batteries, in full view from both sides, the broad, well-to-do town of Fredericksburg, with its great factories, tall spires, and brick buildings, is a tempting target for our guns. The river which flows between (through Fredericksburg is half a mile below Falmouth) is now so narrow that a lad can throw a stone across.

Behind our batteries and their protecting hills rests the infantry of the Grand Division. Gen. Couch's corps occupies a crescent shaped valley—a symmetric natural amphitheater. It is all aglow nightly with a thousand camp-fires; and from the prosecenium-hill of Gen. Howard's headquarters, forms a picture mocking all earthly canvass. Behind the rebel batteries, in the dense forest, their infantry occupies a line five miles long. By night, we just detect the glimmer of their fires; by day we see the tall slender columns of smoke curling up from their camps. Practiced eyes estimate their numbers from these indications at 40,000 or 50,000.

We have waited a week for the pontoon boats, though Gen. Burnside was promised they should be here simultaneously with his first corps. The brilliant idea of bringing them from Winchester, 65 miles over the muddy roads, is worthy the most eminent professor of the great art of How Not to Do It. Governmental minds were apparently ignorant that they could be floated down the Potomac to Belle Plains, only 8 miles from this point.

But last night they were within two miles, so they will not delay us much longer. A few hours will be sufficient for constructing the bridge.

Will the rebels fight the decisive battle here? Many of our officers believe they will. It seems improbable, for their only advantage is the obstacle they can interpose to our crossing the river; and while a part of our army is engaging them here, the rest may cross, above or below, and flank them. If they mean to risk a great battle we shall not complain; we are only eight miles from our water base.

FLORENCE
SEWING MACHINE.
OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Monday Evening, Dec. 1, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Gen. Grant's Army Advancing.

The army under Gen. Grant, which has been for some time in the vicinity of Grand Junction, broke up camp on Friday, and is now moving southward into Mississippi. He will probably find no obstruction to his march this side of Holly Springs, twenty-five miles south. The rumors are contradictory in relation to Price. One statement is that he is in force on the Tallahatchie river, seven miles south of Holly Springs; another, that he is retreating to Jackson or Columbus, some two hundred miles further south. We shall very soon know the truth in relation to the first rumor.

England's Neutrality.

If the report is true that another piratical vessel similar to the Alabama has left Liverpool, and that others of a like character are soon to follow, it is time that we were preparing ourselves for a conflict with England. That nation has really been at war with us ever since the rebellion broke out, under a hypocritical pretence of neutrality. It can be easily seen that if things are to go on in this way, our commerce will be utterly destroyed, and the carrying trade of the country will be thrown into the hands of the English, giving them once more a monopoly of the seas.

Gen. Robinson.—Brig. Gen. Robinson, formerly of this city, we perceive, is still in the army of the Potomac. He has been in active duty ever since the war commenced, and at the battle of the 30th of June, on the Peninsula, took a distinguished part, as appears by a published report of Gen. Kearny, from which we make the following extract:

I have reserved Gen. Robinson for the last. To him this day is due, above all others in the division, the honors of this battle. The attack was on his wing. Everywhere present, by personal supervision and noble example, he secured for us the victory. Our loss has been severe, and when it is remembered that this occurs to mere skeletons of regiments, there is but one observation to be made—that previous military history presents no parallel.

Constitutionality of Soldiers' Votes.—The case in which the constitutionality of the votes of the soldiers taken out of the state will be tested, which was expected to be argued before the supreme court on the 26th, has been postponed until the regular term of the court. The court adjourned until December 4th.

The American Mandarin Killed.—Among the items of foreign news brought by the Arabia is the following from China: "An engagement had taken place near Rungpoo between the rebels and the American General Ward's contingent, in which Ward was killed. The rebels had arrived in great force, determined to retake Rungpoo."

A Close Thing.—John A. Johnson, the republican candidate for clerk of the board in Dane county, wants only three votes more to secure his election. The returns from a number of companies of volunteers have not yet been received, and we think he is elected.

Not Elected.—Ferguson (dem.) is not elected to the Assembly from Dodge county, as has been claimed, by the soldiers' vote. His opponent, Ashley, has a majority both on the home and soldiers' vote.

☞ Incendiaries are trying to burn the city of Memphis. On the night of the 23d, there were ten different fires, and on the night succeeding, fourteen. Notwithstanding the guards were doubled there were several fires on the night of the 26th.

☞ General McArthur has placed Col. John L. Doran, of the 17th Wisconsin, under arrest. As there are many charges against him, it is thought he will be removed. The command of the regiment devolves upon Lieut. Col. Miller.

☞ The people of Grenada, Mississippi, are much alarmed at the approach of Gen. Sherman's army. Some have already commenced moving south. The proprietors of the Appeal have set the example. All the traps about their office that could be spared have been taken south to Jackson, where one of the proprietors was last week. The report of Sherman's advance has also reached Mobile, and excited a lively interest.

☞ Walter D. McIndoe is suggested by the Mauston Star as a candidate to represent the sixth congressional district, in place of Luther Hanchett deceased.

☞ The 23d regiment has left Kentucky and gone south, via Cairo.

☞ The Sixth Wisconsin battery voted 78 for the republican candidates and not one democratic.

Another accident has occurred from the wearing of crinoline. The sufferer is the wife of the Rev. Joseph Evans, of Litchfield, Pontiac, C. W. On Thursday evening last she was standing near the stove, when her dress was suddenly drawn in and was instantly in flames. Before assistance could be rendered, the unfortunate lady was dreadfully burned up all one side of her person, and otherwise injured.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Thirteenth Regiment.

Fort Henry, Tenn., Nov. 26.

Messrs. Editors: Early on Thursday morning, the 20th instant, Co.'s B, G, F, H, and one of the 5th Iowa cavalry, with one day's rations, embarked on board the Ewing for a scouting tour up the river. Col. Lowe was on board, but assigned the command to Major Hart, of the 71st Ohio.—The boat proceeded up the river twelve miles, and run into a sand-bar in the middle of the channel. After a vain attempt to spar her off, the forces on board were ordered to disembark, which they did by the aid of the yawl boat, and wended their way some distance across a stony bar which protruded from the bank to within fifty feet of the boat. The horses were forced down the gang plank into the water, and took their heels to the shore amid the shouts and acclamations of the men. This relief of burden enabled the boatmen to extricate the steamer from her resting place after hours of hard labor, which lasted till after sundown, when she immediately repaired to the opposite shore to await the approach of day, while the busy throng of blue coats bivouaced at one hundred rods distance upon the bank of the river. Early the following morning our voyage was abandoned, and the boat made her way back over the bar and landed below, where she retook her burden and renewed her way toward Fort Henry.

There is a general stir about camp, making cook shantees, cracking nuts, reading, writing, &c., and provision has been made to build a regimental bakery, and men are already employed upon its construction. This is somewhat indicative of winter quarters; but the regiment is subject to a removal any day. The appearance of our noble and generous colonel is welcomed on every corner. The lieut. colonel and several other officers are off on business, probably of a domestic character. The quartermaster has just returned from St. Louis with a quantity of clothing for the regiment. Drs. E. H. and L. are attending to their regular business, and spare no pains in rendering efficient aid to the sick and suffering, who are progressing finely. Four deaths have recently occurred in camp, viz: John Butler, Co. A, Charles Butts, Co. B, Elijah Bowman, Co. C, and Wilson Menor, Co. G. Company G now occupy their place in the regiment, and Co. D is expected to soon. The major arrived here yesterday, and commanded the dress parade this evening. There is a drill when the weather is favorable, but marches are so frequent that drilling is irregular.

We have about one hundred colored men in the regiment, who are employed at the expense of the government as cooks, pioneers, mule-whackers, &c. They are not remarkable for quickness, but trudge along perfectly independent. O. A. C.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
Maj. Gen. Rosecrans' Headquarters,
Nashvill, Tenn., Nov. 25th, 1862.

Editors Gazette:—The tunnel is at last finished and this morning the first regular train from Louisville arrived here.—You can imagine the joy of the army at the sight of this train, which is the harbinger of paymasters, better rations, more clothes, and better than all, an onward movement. For the last four or five days the army has been quite short of rations. The engineer corps has been living for several days on coffee and crackers, and yesterday even that failed them and their officers bought rations for them. The cause of this scarcity, of late, is a large number of our wagons and teams are laid up for repairs, the correls are full of horses and mules which are unfit for service, while at the repairing shop, over a thousand wagons have been left for repairs in the last two weeks. We ought not to complain if we are put on short allowance while the train is being repaired because we have that train the very day we move from here.

Gen. A. McD. McCook, who now holds the advance of our army, had a skirmish with the 'cornfeds,' day before yesterday, and defeated them, driving them across Stony river, in the direction of Murfreesboro.—The rebels burned the bridge across the river, but a new one will be completed today.

The different detachments of the signal corps have been nearly all collected here and partly reorganized. The party under the command of Lieut. Clum will in a day or two be sent on duty with Gen. McCook's division. As he is on the advance and is a real fighter we will not be inactive much longer. Other parties are to be sent with other generals when they move.

I was on duty last Saturday on the capitol, and while there a squad of Forrest's band, which had been captured by General Crittenden, was brought in. The men were clad in all kinds of clothes and look as tho' a little aid from the government which they are trying to overthrow, would improve their looks. A member of one of the companies of the 1st Tennessee found his brother in the captured squad.

Gen. Rosencrans seems to be a wag at times. The other day a fair rebel called on him to obtain a pass to visit her uncle. The pass was politely refused, when the lady said, "My uncle is very sick," and the tears stood in her eyes. The general replied, "My uncle is very unwell also, and just as soon as Uncle Sam recovers you may have the pass to visit your uncle." It is needless to add that the lady left without the required pass.

The firm course of Gen. Rosecrans in correcting the various abuses in the commisary department in this city and his prompt removal of Lieut. Johnson, of the 17th Kentucky, for treasonable language, increase the confidence which the army had in him.

The poor people here already begin to suffer greatly for the common necessaries of life. The extreme high prices of all the articles for sale here, and the complete stagnation of business, renders the case of these people very hard indeed. I should think some of the able-bodied men, who now want employment and food, would hire out to Uncle Sam. I notice that many of inhabitants here begin to see the folly of the rebellion and now are repenting in reality for their sins.

I thank you for the Gazette you sent me last week. It is the first one I have seen in many weeks.

The weather has been fine for several days, but rain or snow is near at hand.

J. M. KIMBALL.

From Gen. Burnsides' Army.

Headquarters Gen. Franklin, Nov. 23, 1862.

On account of the temporary absence of one of your correspondents I left the front this morning, where Gen. Sumner is closely watching Gen. Longstreet and waiting with eagerness the order to cross the Rappahannock and drive him from the hills he has selected for his entrenchments, and rode to the left and center of the army to observe their movements, if there were any on the tapis.

Early this morning a dense fog hung over the Rappahannock. The blood-red sun, like a drunken lord just rising from his slumbers, seemed to struggle with the mist floating in vast clouds through the valley. In vain the signal corps stationed around the headquarters of the General's commanding corps, elevated their glasses and turned them in the direction of the rebel army. Both rebel and union host were enveloped in the dark gloom. Fruitless were the efforts of either party to observe the other's movements. But at noon the fog lifted by a slight breeze, and in part dispelled by the warm rays of the sun, floated off and disappeared.

The first glimpse of the hills beyond Fredericksburg reveal the rebel intrenchments which had been thrown up during the night, and also what upon the closest observation appeared to be batteries partially concealed in brushwood. Gen. Longstreet, very clearly, for the past two days has been anticipating a movement on our part to cross the old ford near Falmouth, and in order to prevent it has planted his batteries so as to command the ford at almost every angle. But if I am not much mistaken, his work has all been in vain.—Not a man from our army will cross, or attempt to cross, at that point. There are other fords more practicable and other ways of circumventing this wily general than by accepting battle where he seems most inclined to offer it. Therefore, I think that for the next two or three days the struggle between Gen. Lee and Gen. Burnside will be purely a mental one, nothing but the caliber and reach of the brain will be tested. We must wait patiently, therefore, whilst this silent struggle is going on.

But although highly cultivated and able minds are undergoing the severest tension, the mere machinery of the army, which, after long discipline, seems to move without a directing will, is spinning and humming with ceaseless activity.

But I have wandered away from the left and center, toward which I started my horse. The rear of an advancing army is never an interesting place to one in search of something for the people to read. Drilling and maneuvering troops have long since ceased to attract attention. Only the roar and the rush of battle, the close proximity of the enemy, an atmosphere filled with rumors, or the ghastly scenes upon the gory field, will quicken the pulse and send the blood leaping to the brain. Everything else seems tame and lifeless in comparison.

The long train of pontoons has arrived, just five days behind time. If what leading generals tell me is true, and I doubt them not, the mistake of this campaign, thus far, has been in not having the pontoon train on the ground last week Tuesday, the day General Sumner's advance reached Falmouth. It could then have been thrown over the river at the most feasible point, and encountered the fire of but a section of rebel artillery. Now the shot and shell of a hundred guns will, perhaps, blaze away upon it as it is being thrown across the river.

This error should not be set down against Gen. Burnside. He was promised it should be here upon the arrival of Gen. Sumner.

After the pontoon train came that magnificent reserve artillery, composed of sixty pieces of heaviest field calibre, which we heard so much about, but which did so little execution. It has been well named reserve artillery. It has never won any better title. But the fact that as I was riding my horse to the rear of the army this afternoon, those ten batteries were going to the front, apparently in support of the pontoon train, is sufficient to satisfy me that in the next engagement Gen. Burnside is determined that it shall play the part of reserve no longer, but try its mettle (and metal) with the best of the rebel artillery.

I reached the headquarters of Gen. Franklin about sunset. The two corps under his command were doing nothing but drawing their rations, a great abundance of which are piled around every commissary and quartermaster's tent.

The village of Stafford Court House, around which, for miles, the grand divisions of Gens. Hooker and Franklin are encamped, is the weakest apology for a village I have yet seen in Virginia. The profession of law has always seemed to me to be a very respectable one; but from practicing it in such a court house, in such a village, with such a God-forsaken looking people for clients, I pray the Lord forever to deliver me. The staff horses of Gen. Franklin were eating oats within the bar, and I think it was the head of an ass or a mule that peered above the judge's seat. One would know that Stafford county was long since sold, body and soul, to slavery and treason, by simply visiting its county seat.

The Negro our Natural Ally.—The following is an extract from a letter of the Port Royal correspondent of the Independent, speaking of the expedition to the St. Johns river:

It was a negro who saved the expedition from utter failure, and the troops from probable ruin. On reaching the mouth of the St. Johns river, it appears that there was no way for the troops to get in the rear of the battery on the bluff except by marching forty miles around Pablo and Mt. Pleasant creeks. They must carry rations, and the sick and weary must be left by the roadside to be murdered by the guerrillas of the enemy. The troops would reach the scene of action utterly exhausted, and if defented, would be likely to be annihilated. Yet there was no alternative, and the order for the desperate march was given.

But, about midnight, a negro came from shore and told the general of a point of land where the troops might land with ease and safety, and by a march of eight or ten miles would reach a spot where they could cover the landing of cavalry and artillery, and from thence by a march of four miles could reach the battery from the rear. He described the roads, and gave all needful information as to the topography of the region with perfect clearness and absolute accuracy. His advice was adopted; the enemy found themselves assailed from a side where they had not dreamed of attack, and fled precipitately. We owe the bloodless victory of St. John's Bluff, and the opening of St. John's river, to the bravery and intelligence of a negro, (no longer, thank God, a slave.)

The Boston Post says that an officer, who professes to be authority on the subject of military tactics, tore off the seat of his breeches with his spurs the other day in attempting to dismount from his horse.

Morning Dispatches.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac,
November 30.

Herald's Special.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned by the circulation of a report here that a proposition had been made by the rebels for an armistice of 30 days, and that Lee was already in Washington arranging terms of the agreement. No credence is put in this rumor, however. The rebels are working with redoubled vigor on their fortifications, and their cavalry of late have been very active and have captured a number of our pickets along the fords of the river, besides the two companies of the 3d Pennsylvania cavalry at Harwood Church. Longstreet commands the right and Hill the left of the rebel force confronting us. Deserters coming within our lines report that a large body of their force have been detached and sent off, either to Richmond or to reinforce Jackson. These reports must be received with great caution, however. Our cavalry have captured a number of rebels along the river below this place.

Springfield, Mo., Nov. 29.

General Blunt, with 1,000 federals, attacked and routed about 8,000 rebels under General Marmaduke, at Cave Hill, Arkansas, on the 20th, killing 60 and driving the balance some 12 miles. General Blunt telegraphs that the enemy is badly whipped, and will not probably venture north of Boston Mountains again this winter, and as they have consumed all the subsistence in the valley of the Arkansas, they must soon retreat into Texas.

Cairo, Nov. 29.

Special to Chicago Journal.—The great armies of the southwest are all in motion.

General Sherman left Memphis Wednesday morning, and General Grant's troops struck their tents at dawn yesterday. By 8 o'clock the leading columns were in motion. A wilderness of bayonets flashed in the morning sun. Banners fluttered in mild breezes, and music, martial and brass, filled the air. Added to this a thousand of voices sent up their hearty cheers.

Nearly all the soldiers are in good health, and all are well clad and armed. They have unanimously desired a forward movement, and now they are gratified. The one sentiment is, "Lead us to battle—let us put down the rebellion, and go home."

One look at that gallant, cheerful host as it took up its irresistible march yesterday was worth a lifetime.

One tent is allowed to twenty men and one to the officers of each company. Six wagons are allowed to each regiment. Seven days' rations were prepared. Personal baggage will be forwarded by rail.

The railroad from Grand Junction will be completed in a day or two. Trains have already passed over a part of the road. The rebels, as they fall back towards Grenada, tear up the track and carry away many of the rails and destroy bridges and culverts. This will have to be repaired as fast as the army advances.

The railroad from Grand Junction will not be repaired at present. Some of the rails have been taken to repair the road south.

The rebels are reported to be falling back from Tallahatchie and Grenada, and it is even said on good authority that they are moving their heavier valuables from Jackson.

Rebel prisoners taken confess to the utter hopelessness of their cause in the west. Most of them are half naked, and not more than one in ten have blankets. Added to this they are beyond doubt poorly fed. In all reason can they much longer keep up a show of resistance?

House.—The chaplain returned thanks for the brightening prospects for the liberty of the slave, for emancipation from a system which had involved us in sorrow and shame.

The roll was called by states. A quorum was present.

A message was received from the senate stating that a quorum had assembled, and that body was ready for business. A similar message was sent to the senate.

A committee of both houses was appointed to wait on the President to inform him that they were ready to receive communications.

Mr. Conklin of New York offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the committee on naval affairs to inquire and report the method of placing vessels of war on Lake Erie, when the exigency may arise, and establishing water communication from other waters to the lakes, and report which of the various plans is most reliable.

Terrible Accident.—On Tuesday night last a German named Busch, who has been employed some years at the paper mill, fell into the bleaching vat of boiling lime, and when rescued from it immediately rushed into the pond to cool himself off. He had strength to reach home after his fearful scalding, and though medical aid was called at once, he lived only a couple of hours after the accident. His skin is said to have been almost entirely scalded or eaten away. His sufferings were intense.—Whitewater Register.

Counterfeit Shinplasters—A Question to be Settled.—It appears by the Syracuse papers that one Julius Jacobs, a grocer, has been arrested on a charge of counterfeiting the shinplasters of three firms in that city. Blanks and counterfeit checks were found on his premises. The evidence is conclusive against him, it is said, but his counsel contend that he cannot be convicted of a legal offence.

It is presumed that the ground of the defence is, that shinplasters are illegal paper, and that the charge of forgery will not lie in the case. This defence was held to be good in a case where a fellow counterfeited confederate scrip and bought property of the secessionists of Virginia.

The bride elect of the Prince of Wales is now in London. Her full name is Alexandra Caroline Maria Charlotte Louisa Julia.

Fourteen young women of Brentwood, New Hampshire, went to the house of an aged farmer, who has sent three sons to the war, and husked one hundred bushels of corn for him.

Editors in the Legislature.—The next assembly will contain editors as follows:

A. J. Turner, rep., Portage City Register.

O. B. Lapham, rep., ex-editor Adams Co. Independent.

George C. Ginty, rep., Oconto Pioneer.

George Hyer, dem., Wisconsin Patriot.

John Walworth, rep., Richland Observer.

P. V. Deuster, dem., Milwaukee See Bote (Ger.)

H. D. Barron, union, ex-ed. Waukesha Democrat.

J. R. Sharpstein, dem., ex-ed. Milwaukee News.

Carl Zilier, dem., Sheboygan Demokrat (Ger.)

W. C. Webb, rep., Waushara Argus.

Emil Rothe, dem., Watertown Demokrat (Ger.)

In the senate we find three—John R. Bohan, dem., Ozaukee Advertiser; Ed. Keogh, ex-ed. of the Milwaukee News, and Wyman Spooner, ex-editor.—Portage City Register.

Strange Developments in Regard to Hon. Reverdy Johnson.—The New Orleans correspondent of the New York Times gives some strange developments relative to the doings of Hon. Reverdy Johnson in New Orleans. It appears that the money seized by Gen. Butler at the French Consul's, and which was returned at the direction of Johnson, actually belonged to citizens of New Orleans, and was taken charge of by the consul to pay for cloth in Havana, awaiting to run the blockade, to be used by the confederate government; and that the money, $405,000, has been actually sent from New Orleans to Havana, within a short period, on board the Spanish war steamer Blanco de Garay.

The health of Col. Daniels, of the 1st Wisconsin cavalry, we are pleased to learn, is rapidly improving. His greatest trouble at present is the ague; that broken up and cured, his friends anticipate his speedy restoration to health. Col. Daniels is now at Ripon.—Waukesha Freeman.

Bishop Ames, of the Methodist Church in Indiana, has issued a circular calling upon all denominations of christians to respond to the late call of Governor Morton for aid to the families of Indiana volunteers.

Among the mechanical novelties recently brought out, is a new sewing machine that works two needles at the same time. It is intended to work on congress gaiters, boot tops, and other articles requiring parallel seams. Another invention recently brought before the public is a button-hole stitcher, which has been adopted, and the right to use purchased by the leading sewing machine companies. It holds the cloth steady while the needle revolves.

The year of mourning for Prince Albert has nearly expired, and it is expected that the first public act of Queen Victoria will be to call the Parliament and open it in person. It is expected that the house will meet early next year.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

OF THE

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,-712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business mon, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Dec. 1, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Gen. Grant's Army Advancing.

The army under Gen. Grant, which has been for some time in the vicinity of Grand Junction, broke up camp on Friday, and is now moving southward into Mississippi. He will probably find no obstruction to his march this side of Holly Springs, twenty-five miles south. The rumors are contradictory in relation to Price. One statement is that he is in force on the Tallahatchie river, seven miles south of Holly Springs; another, that he is retreating to Jackson or Columbus, some two hundred miles further south. We shall very soon know the truth in relation to the first rumor.

England's Neutrality.

If the report is true that another piratical vessel similar to the Alabama has left Liverpool, and that others of a like character are soon to follow, it is time that we were preparing ourselves for a conflict with England. That nation has really been at war with us ever since the rebellion broke out, under a hypocritical pretence of neutrality. It can be easily seen that if things are to go on in this way, our commerce will be utterly destroyed, and the carrying trade of the country will be thrown into the hands of the English, giving them once more a monopoly of the seas.

GEN. ROBINSON.—Brig. Gen. Robinson, formerly of this city, we perceive, is still in the army of the Potomac. He has been in active duty ever since the war commenced, and at the battle of the 30th of June, on the Peninsula, took a distinguished part, as appears by a published report of Gen. Kearny, from which we make the following extract:

I have reserved Gen. Robinson for the last. To him this day is due, above all others in the division, the honors of this battle. The attack was on his wing. Everywhere present, by personal supervision and noble example, he secured for us the victory. Our loss has been severe, and when it is remembered that this occurs to mere skeletons of regiments, there is but one observation to be made—that previous military history presents no parallel.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF SOLDIERS' VOTES.—The case in which the constitutionality of the votes of the soldiers taken out of the state will be tested, which was expected to be argued before the supreme court on the 26th, has been postponed until the regular term of the court. The court adjourned until December 4th.

THE AMERICAN MANDARIN KILLED.—Among the items of foreign news brought by the Arabia is the following from China: "An engagement had taken place near Rungpoo between the rebels and the American General Ward's contingent, in which Ward was killed. The rebels had arrived in great force, determined to retake Rungpoo."

A CLOSE THING.—John A. Johnson, the republican candidate for clerk of the board in Dane county, wants only three votes more to secure his election. The returns from a number of companies of volunteers have not yet been received, and we think he is elected.

NOT ELECTED.—Ferguson (dem.) is not elected to the Assembly from Dodge county, as has been claimed, by the soldiers' vote. His opponent, Ashley, has a majority both on the home and soldiers' vote.

☞ Incendiaries are trying to burn the city of Memphis. On the night of the 23d, there were ten different fires, and on the night succeeding, fourteen. Notwithstanding the guards were doubled there were several fires on the night of the 26th.

☞ General McArthur has placed Col. John L. Doran, of the 17th Wisconsin, under arrest. As there are many charges against him, it is thought he will be removed. The command of the regiment devolves upon Lieut. Col. Miller.

☞ The people of Grenada, Mississippi, are much alarmed at the approach of Gen. Sherman's army. Some have already commenced moving south. The proprietors of the Appeal have set the example. All the traps about their office that could be spared have been taken south to Jackson, where one of the proprietors was last week. The report of Sherman's advance has also reached Mobile, and excited a lively interest.

☞ Walter D. McIndoe is suggested by the Mauston Star as a candidate to represent the sixth congressional district, in place of Luther Hanchett deceased.

☞ The 23d regiment has left Kentucky and gone south, via Cairo.

☞ The Sixth Wisconsin battery voted 78 for the republican candidates and not one democratic.

Another accident has occurred from the wearing of crinoline. The sufferer is the wife of the Rev. Joseph Evans, of Litchfield, Pontiac, C. W. On Thursday evening last she was standing near the stove, when her dress was suddenly drawn in and was instantly in flames. Before assistance could be rendered, the unfortunate lady was dreadfully burned up all one side of her person, and otherwise injured.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

FORT HENRY, Tenn., Nov. 26.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Early on Thursday morning, the 20th instant, Co.'s B, G, F, H, and one of the 5th Iowa cavalry, with one day's rations, embarked on board the Ewing for a scouting tour up the river. Col. Lowe was on board, but assigned the command to Major Hart, of the 71st Ohio.—The boat proceeded up the river twelve miles, and run into a sand-bar in the middle of the channel. After a vain attempt to spar her off, the forces on board were ordered to disembark, which they did by the aid of the yawl boat, and wended their way some distance across a stony bar which protruded from the bank to within fifty feet of the boat. The horses were forced down the gang plank into the water, and took their heels to the shore amid the shouts and acclamations of the men. This relief of burden enabled the boatmen to extricate the steamer from her resting place after hours of hard labor, which lasted till after sundown, when she immediately repaired to the opposite shore to await the approach of day, while the busy throng of blue coats bivouaced at one hundred rods distance upon the bank of the river. Early the following morning our voyage was abandoned, and the boat made her way back over the bar and lauded below, where she retook her burden and renewed her way toward Fort Henry.

There is a general stir about camp, making cook shantees, cracking nuts, reading, writing, &c., and provision has been made to build a regimental bakery, and men are already employed upon its construction. This is somewhat indicative of winter quarters; but the regiment is subject to a removal any day. The appearance of our noble and generous colonel is welcomed on every corner. The lieut. colonel and several other officers are off on business, probably of a domestic character. The quartermaster has just returned from St. Louis with a quantity of clothing for the regiment. Drs. E. H. and L. are attending to their regular business, and spare no pains in rendering efficient aid to the sick and suffering, who are progressing finely. Four deaths have recently occurred in camp, viz: John Butler, Co. A, Charles Butts, Co. B, Elijah Bowman, Co. C, and Wilson Menor, Co. G. Company G now occupy their place in the regiment, and Co. D is expected to soon. The major arrived here yesterday, and commanded the dress parade this evening. There is a drill when the weather is favorable, but marches are so frequent that drilling is irregular.

We have about one hundred colored men in the regiment, who are employed at the expense of the government as cooks, pioneers, mule-whackers, &c. They are not remarkable for quickness, but trudge along perfectly independent. O. A. C.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

MAJ. GEN. ROSECRANS' HEADQUARTERS,
Nashvill, Tenn., Nov. 25th, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The tunnel is at last finished and this morning the first regular train from Louisville arrived here.—You can imagine the joy of the army at the sight of this train, which is the harbinger of paymasters, better rations, more clothes, and better than all, an onward movement. For the last four or five days the army has been quite short of rations. The engineer corps has been living for several days on coffee and crackers, and yesterday even that failed them and their officers bought rations for them. The cause of this scarcity, of late, is a large number of our wagons and teams are laid up for repairs, the correls are full of horses and mules which are unfit for service, while at the repairing shop, over a thousand wagons have been left for repairs in the last two weeks. We ought not to complain if we are put on short allowance while the train is being repaired because we have that train the very day we move from here.

Gen. A. McD. McCook, who now holds the advance of our army, had a skirmish with the 'cornfeds,' day before yesterday, and defeated them, driving them across Stony river, in the direction of Murfreesboro.—The rebels burned the bridge across the river, but a new one will be completed today.

The different detachments of the signal corps have been nearly all collected here and partly reorganized. The party under the command of Lieut. Clum will in a day or two be sent on duty with Gen. McCook's division. As he is on the advance and is a real fighter we will not be inactive much longer. Other parties are to be sent with other generals when they move.

I was on duty last Saturday on the capitol, and while there a squad of Forrest's band, which had been captured by General Crittenden, was brought in. The men were clad in all kinds of clothes and look as tho' a little aid from the government which they are trying to overthrow, would improve their looks. A member of one of the companies of the 1st Tennessee found his brother in the captured squad.

Gen. Rosencrans seems to be a wag at times. The other day a fair rebel called on him to obtain a pass to visit her uncle. The pass was politely refused, when the lady said, "My uncle is very sick," and the tears stood in her eyes. The general replied, "My uncle is very unwell also, and just as soon as Uncle Sam recovers you may have the pass to visit your uncle." It is needless to add that the lady left without the required pass.

The firm course of Gen. Rosecrans in correcting the various abuses in the commisary department in this city and his prompt removal of Lieut. Johnson, of the 17th Kentucky, for treasonable language, increase the confidence which the army had in him.

The poor people here already begin to suffer greatly for the common necessaries of life. The extreme high prices of all the articles for sale here, and the complete stagnation of business, renders the case of these people very hard indeed. I should think some of the able-bodied men, who now want employment and food, would hire out to Uncle Sam. I notice that many of inhabitants here begin to see the folly of the rebellion and now are repenting in reality for their sins.

I thank you for the Gazette you sent me last week. It is the first one I have seen in many weeks.

The weather has been fine for several days, but rain or snow is near at hand.

J. M. KIMBALL.

From Gen. Burnsides' Army.

HEADQUARTERS GEN. FRANKLIN, Nov. 25, 1862.

On account of the temporary absence of one of your correspondents I left the fornt this morning, where Gen. Sumner is closely watching Gen. Longstreet and waiting with eagerness the order to cross the Rappahannock and drive him from the hills he has selected for his entrenchments, and rode to the left and center of the army to observe their movements, if there were any on the tapis.

Early this morning a dense fog hung over the Rappahannock. The blood-red sun, like a drunken lord just rising from his slumbers, seemed to struggle with the mist floating in vast clouds through the valley. In vain the signal corps stationed around the headquarters of the General's commanding corps, elevated their glasses and turned them in the direction of the rebel army. Both rebel and union host were enveloped in the dark gloom. Fruitless were the efforts of either party to observe the other's movements. But at noon the fog lifted by a slight breeze, and in part dispelled by the warm rays of the sun, floated off and disappeared.

The first glimpse of the hills beyond Fredericksburg reveal the rebel intrenchments which had been thrown up during the night, and also what upon the closest observation appeared to be batteries partially concealed in brushwood. Gen. Longstreet, very clearly, for the past two days has been anticipating a movement on our part to cross the old ford near Falmouth, and in order to prevent it has planted his batteries so as to command the ford at almost every angle. But if I am not much mistaken, his work has all been in vain.—Not a man from our army will cross, or attempt to cross, at that point. There are other fords more practicable and other ways of circumventing this wily general than by accepting battle where he seems most inclined to offer it. Therefore, I think that for the next two or three days the struggle between Gen. Lee and Gen. Burnside will be purely a mental one, nothing but the caliber and reach of the brain will be tested. We must wait patiently, therefore, whilst this silent struggle is going on.

But although highly cultivated and able minds are undergoing the severest tension, the mere machinery of the army, which, after long discipline, seems to move without a directing will, is spinning and humming with ceaseless activity.

But I have wandered away from the left and center, toward which I started my horse. The rear of an advancing army is never an interesting place to one in search of something for the people to read. Drilling and manœuvering troops have long since ceased to attract attention. Only the roar and the rush of battle, the close proximity of the enemy, an atmosphere filled with rumors, or the ghastly scenes upon the gory field, will quicken the pulse and send the blood leaping to the brain. Everything else seems tame and lifeless in comparison.

The long train of pontoons has arrived, just five days behind time. If what leading generals tell me is true, and I doubt them not, the mistake of this campaign, thus far, has been in not having the pontoon train on the ground last week Tuesday, the day General Sumner's advance reached Falmouth. It could then have been thrown over the river at the most feasible point, and encountered the fire of but a section of rebel artillery. Now the shot and shell of a hundred guns will, perhaps, blaze away upon it as it is being thrown across the river.

This error should not be set down against Gen. Burnside. He was promised it should be here upon the arrival of Gen. Sumner.

After the pontoon train came that magnificent reserve artillery, composed of sixty pieces of heaviest field calibre, which we heard so much about, but which did so little execution. It has been well named reserve artillery. It has never won any better title. But the fact that as I was riding my horse to the rear of the army this afternoon, those ten batteries were going to the front, apparently in support of the pontoon train, is sufficient to satisfy me that in the next engagement Gen. Burnside is determined that it shall play the part of reserve no longer, but try its mettle (and metal) with the best of the rebel artillery.

I reached the headquarters of Gen. Franklin about sunset. The two corps under his command were doing nothing but drawing their rations, a great abundance of which are piled around every commissary and quartermaster's tent.

The village of Stafford Court House, around which, for miles, the grand divisions of Gens. Hooker and Franklin are encamped, is the weakest apology for a village I have yet seen in Virginia. The profession of law has always seemed to me to be a very respectable one; but from practicing it in such a court house, in such a village, with such a God-forsaken looking people for clients, I pray the Lord forever to deliver me. The staff horses of Gen. Franklin were eating oats within the bar, and I think it was the head of an ass or a mule that peered above the judge's seat. One would know that Stafford county was long since sold, body and soul, to slavery and treason, by simply visiting its county seat.

THE NEGRO OUR NATURAL ALLY.—The following is an extract from a letter of the Port Royal correspondent of the Independent, speaking of the expedition to the St. Johns river:

It was a negro who saved the expedition from utter failure, and the troops from probable ruin. On reaching the mouth of the St. Johns river, it appears that there was no way for the troops to get in the rear of the battery on the bluff except by marching forty miles around Pablo and Mt. Pleasant creeks. They must carry rations, and the sick and weary must be left by the roadside to be murdered by the guerrillas of the enemy. The troops would reach the scene of action utterly exhausted, and if defeated, would be likely to be annihilated. Yet there was no alternative, and the order for the desperate march was given.

But, about midnight, a negro came from shore and told the general of a point of land where the troops might land with ease and safety, and by a march of eight or ten miles would reach a spot where they could cover the landing of cavalry and artillery, and from thence by a march of four miles could reach the battery from the rear. He described the roads, and gave all needful information as to the topography of the region with perfect clearness and absolute accuracy. His advice was adopted; the enemy found themselves assailed from a side where they had not dreamed of attack, and fled precipitately. We owe the bloodless victory of St. John's Bluff, and the opening of St. John's river, to the bravery and intelligence of a negro, (no longer, thank God, a slave.)

The Boston Post says that an officer, who professes to be authority on the subject of military tactics, tore off the seat of his breeches with his spurs the other day in attempting to dismount from his horse.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
November 30.

Herald's Special.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned by the circulation of a report here that a proposition had been made by the rebels for an armistice of 30 days, and that Lee was already in Washington arranging terms of the agreement. No credence is put in this rumor, however. The rebels are working with redoubled vigor on their fortifications, and their cavalry of late have been very active and have captured a number of our pickets along the fords of the river, besides the two companies of the 3d Pennsylvania cavalry at Harwood Church. Longstreet commands the right and Hill the left of the rebel force confronting us. Deserters coming within our lines report that a large body of their force have been detached and sent off, either to Richmond or to reinforce Jackson. These reports must be received with great caution, however. Our cavalry have captured a number of rebels along the river below this place.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 29.

General Blunt, with 1,000 federals, attacked and routed about 8,000 rebels under General Marmaduke, at Cave Hill, Arkansas, on the 20th, killing 60 and driving the balance some 12 miles. General Blunt telegraphs that the enemy is badly whipped, and will not probably venture north of Boston Mountains again this winter, and as they have consumed all the subsistence in the valley of the Arkansas, they must soon retreat into Texas.

CAIRO, Nov. 29.

Special to Chicago Journal.—The great armies of the southwest are all in motion.

General Sherman left Memphis Wednesday morning, and General Grant's troops struck their tents at dawn yesterday. By 8 o'clock the leading columns were in motion. A wilderness of bayonets flashed in the morning sun. Banners fluttered in mild breezes, and music, martial and brass, filled the air. Added to this a thousand of voices sent up their hearty cheers.

Nearly all the soldiers are in good health, and all are well clad and armed. They have unanimously desired a forward movement, and now they are gratified. The one sentiment is, "Lead us to battle—let us put down the rebellion, and go home."

One look at that gallant, cheerful host as it took up its irresistible march yesterday was worth a lifetime.

One tent is allowed to twenty men and one to the officers of each company. Six wagons are allowed to each regiment. Seven days' rations were prepared. Personal baggage will be forwarded by rail.

The railroad from Grand Junction will be completed in a day or two. Trains have already passed over a part of the road. The rebels, as they fall back towards Grenada, tear up the track and carry away many of the rails and destroy bridges and culverts. This will have to be repaired as fast as the army advances.

The railroad from Grand Junction will not be repaired at present. Some of the rails have been taken to repair the road south.

The rebels are reported to be falling back from Tallahatchie and Grenada, and it is even said on good authority that they are moving their heavier valuables from Jackson.

Rebel prisoners taken confess to the utter hopelessness of their cause in the west. Most of them are half naked, and not more than one in ten have blankets. Added to this they are beyond doubt poorly fed. In all reason can they much longer keep up a show of resistance?

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

TO EDITORS:—The storm bids fair to materially interfere with telegraphing the message. The wires have been badly working all the morning, and at this hour the telegraph superintendent reports but three wires to Washington in good order.

The Hibernian, from Liverpool the 20th, and Londonderry the 21st, passed this evening. Breadstuffs steady and quiet. Corn upward. Provisions dull. Consols 93¼ money. It is reported that a steamer similar to the Alabama has left Liverpool. Another will soon follow.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.

HOUSE.—The chaplain returned thanks for the brightening prospects for the liberty of the slave, for emancipation from a system which had involved us in sorrow and shame.

The roll was called by states. A quorum was present.

A message was received from the senate stating that a quorum had assembled, and that body was ready for business. A similar message was sent to the senate.

A committee of both houses was appointed to wait on the President to inform him that they were ready to receive communications.

Mr. Conklin of New York offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the committee on naval affairs to inquire and report the method of placing vessels of war on Lake Erie, when the exigency may arise, and establishing water communication from other waters to the lakes, and report which of the various plans is most reliable.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday night last a German named Busch, who has been employed some years at the paper mill, fell into the bleaching vat of boiling lime, and when rescued from it immediately rushed into the pond to cool himself off. He had strength to reach home after his fearful scalding, and though medical aid was called at once, he lived only a couple of hours after the accident. His skin is said to have been almost entirely scalded or eaten away. His sufferings were intense.—Whitewater Register.

COUNTERFEIT SHINPLASTERS—A QUESTION TO BE SETTLED.—It appears by the Syracuse papers that one Julius Jacobs, a grocer, has been arrested on a charge of counterfeiting the shinplasters of three firms in that city. Blanks and counterfeit checks were found on his premises. The evidence is conclusive against him, it is said, but his counsel contend that he cannot be convicted of a legal offence.

It is presumed that the ground of the defence is, that shinplasters are illegal paper, and that the charge of forgery will not lie in the case. This defence was held to be good in a case where a fellow counterfeited confederate scrip and bought property of the secessionists of Virginia.

The bride elect of the Prince of Wales is now in London. Her full name is Alexandra Caroline Maria Charlotte Louisa Julia.

Fourteen young women of Brentwood, New Hampshire, went to the house of an aged farmer, who has sent three sons to the war, and husked one hundred bushels of corn for him.

STRANGE DEVELOPMENTS IN REGARD TO HON. REVERDY JOHNSON.—The New Orleans correspondent of the New York Times gives some strange developments relative to the doings of Hon. Reverdy Johnson in New Orleans. It appears that the money seized by Gen. Butler at the French Consul's, and which was returned at the direction of Johnson, actually belonged to citizens of New Orleans, and was taken charge of by the consul to pay for cloth in Havana, awaiting to run the blockade, to be used by the confederate government; and that the money, $405,000, has been actually sent from New Orleans to Havana, within a short period, on board the Spanish war steamer Blanco de Garay.

The health of Col. Daniels, of the 1st Wisconsin cavalry, we are pleased to learn, is rapidly improving. His greatest trouble at present is the ague; that broken up and cured, his friends anticipate his speedy restoration to health. Col. Daniels is now at Ripon.—Waukesha Freeman.

Bishop Amee, of the Methodist Church in Indiana, has issued a circular calling upon all denominations of christians to respond to the late call of Governor Morton for aid to the families of Indiana volunteers.

Among the mechanical novelties recently brought out, is a new sewing machine that works two needles at the same time. It is intended to work on congress gaiters, boot tops, and other articles requiring parallel seams. Another invention recently brought before the public is a button-hole stitcher, which has been adopted, and the right to use purchased by the leading sewing machine companies. It holds the cloth steady while the needle revolves.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

Proceedings of the Council.

SPECIAL MEETING,
SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 29th, 1862.

Present—The Mayor, Ald. Bates, Collins, McChesney, Patten and Winans.

A deed from Dickson & Bailey for a school house lot in the 3d ward was received and referred to the finance committee.

Appropriations were made of $40 to Michael Lynch for surveying, charged to 3d ward fund; $52.91 to Dewey, Todd & Co., balance of judgment; $1 to C. C. Phelps for labor. An order of $10 was directed to be issued to Wm. Hume to replace an order lost by him, on his giving a bond of indemnity.

The treasurer's report for November was received and referred to the finance committee.

A petition to establish a grain market was referred to the judiciary committee, with instructions to report an ordinance.

The following resolution, introduced by Ald. Collins, was adopted.

Resolved, That J. A. Sleeper, Esq., be requested on the part of the city to examine and advise this council—

1st, Whether the county supervisors have the power to levy upon the city the amount of taxes declared illegal for the years 1854, '55, '56 and '57, under the facts that certificates issued by the county treasurer for those taxes embraced street improvement taxes, which were not, under the charter, chargeable to the city, but only on the property benefited; and that a reassessment of taxes by an act of the legislature is now being enforced upon the city property for the collection of these delinquent taxes.

2d, Whether, if the county board do assess upon the city these illegal taxes, the council have any remedy, and what remedy.

3d, That he confer with I. C. Sloan, Esq., district attorney, and agree upon some course of action, to be by them recommended mutually to this council and to the county board of supervisors.

4th, And to report to this council at a meeting Dec. 1st, at 7 o'clock P. M.

The subject of the illegal taxes charged back to the city occupied the council until a late hour, in a general discussion.

Adjourned to Monday evening, Dec. 1.

☞ Mr. McAfferty's first reading from Scott's Lady of the Lake will be given at Mr. Miner's rooms in the Myers' House tomorrow (Tuesday), evening. Ticket holders will please meet at half past seven promptly.

FIRST WISCONSIN CAVALRY.—Reports from this regiment have led to the conclusion that its losses have been so great as to seriously impair its efficiency for service. A recent report, however, shows this to be an error, and it now appears that there are present in the regiment 716 men, of whom 616 are fit for duty. Absent from duty, 11 officers and 272 men, making one less than a thousand now belonging to the regiment.

☞ The Ozaukee rioters are to be turned over to Gen. Pope, for such disposition as he may think proper to make of them. About fifty propose to enlist for three years, and three have been set at liberty who took but slight or unwilling part in the riot.

☞ Judge Doolittle is confined at home by sickness.

☞ Dr. Thornhill, of the 8th regiment, has been discharged from service.

☞ Mr. E. A. Tappen, a son of E. Arthur Tappen, the well-known New York merchant, died of consumption, at Madison, on the 26th ult. His disease was contracted in the army.

VOTE IN THE FOURTH REGIMENT.—The vote of companies C, E, F, and H, of the 4th regiment, at New Orleans, has been received. They give 31 for Potter, 7 for Brown; 28 for Sloan, 12 for Guppy; 33 for Bragg, 7 for Eldridge; 28 for E. L. Browne, or 120 republican, and 26 democratic.

HOW THE 25TH REGIMENT VOTED.—Returns have been received at the capitol from the vote of all the companies of the 25th regiment, scattered on the frontier of Minnesota. The vote foots up as follows: 10 for Sloan; 294 for Cobb, 33 for Simpson; 159 for Hanchett, 152 for Stoddard, or 463 republican, 185 democratic and independent, the bulk of the latter vote being given for Stoddard on local and personal rather than political grounds. On legislative candidates, the democrats have but about one hundred votes.

FURTHER RETURNS FROM THE FOURTH.—Returns from companies G and B, of the 4th regiment have been received. They give 2 for Potter, 1 for Brown; 5 for Sloan; 14 for Bragg; 13 for E. L. Browne, and 47 for Hanchett, or 81 republican, and 1 democratic.

☞ Herschell V. Johnson, the candidate on the Douglas ticket for vice-president two years ago, was recently elected to Jeff. Davis' senate from the state of Georgia.

☞ Over four hundred drafted men left Ozaukee on Wednesday for Milwaukee by the steamer Comet.

THE DRAFT IN CHICAGO.—The number of men to be drafted from Chicago is 3,157. The whole number of men in that city liable to do military duty, is 23,151. The number who have been enlisted is 2,445.

GOLD GOING DOWN.—The brokers in Chicago, on Saturday, after the New York dispatches were received, were unwilling to pay over 127a127½ for gold. Demand notes and silver were also declining. The latter is heavy at 118a120.

All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair Coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. the results of which are not without their importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, foreseeing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we took "Time" by the forelock and brought our immense to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered amongst the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over consisting of 300 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirting, in all the popular widths and makes.

CASH RESOURCES

100 cases Merrimac, Cochece, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fast Color Calicoes, printed in advance for this fall's trade.

We have a Monster stock of Flannels of every make, color, quality and width. All our White Flannels are of the highly prized make of Samuel Gilbert, Andover, Mass. HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisements, but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the interior of Wisconsin, particularly of

STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of

Domestic Goods,

consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Rags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

is twice as large as it ever was before, and much the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

SHAWLS

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Brocha made,

LADIES' FURS!

Three thousand dollars worth of these goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than jobbers pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our orders some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful

Proceedings of the Council.

SPECIAL MEETING,
SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 29th, 1862.

Present—The Mayor, Ald. Bates, Collins, McChesney, Patten and Winans.

A deed from Dickson & Bailey for a school house lot in the 3d ward was received and referred to the finance committee.

Appropriations were made of $40 to Michael Lynch for surveying, charged to 3d ward fund; $52.91 to Dewey, Todd & Co., balance of judgment; $1 to C. C. Phelps for labor. An order of $10 was directed to be issued to Wm. Hume to replace an order lost by him, on his giving a bond of indemnity.

The treasurer's report for November was received and referred to the finance committee.

A petition to establish a grain market was referred to the judiciary committee, with instructions to report an ordinance.

The following resolution, introduced by Ald. Collins, was adopted.

Resolved, That J. A. Sleeper, Esq., be requested on the part of the city to examine and advise this council—

1st, Whether the county supervisors have the power to levy upon the city the amount of taxes declared illegal for the years 1854, '55, '56 and '57, under the facts that certificates issued by the county treasurer for those taxes embraced street improvement taxes, which were not, under the charter, chargeable to the city, but only on the property benefited; and that a reassessment of taxes by an act of the legislature is now being enforced upon the city property for the collection of these delinquent taxes.

2d, Whether, if the county board do assess upon the city these illegal taxes, the council have any remedy, and what remedy.

3d, That he confer with I. C. Sloan, Esq., district attorney, and agree upon some course of action, to be by them recommended mutually to this council and to the county board of supervisors.

4th, And to report to this council at a meeting Dec. 1st, at 7 o'clock P. M.

The subject of the illegal taxes charged back to the city occupied the council until a late hour, in a general discussion.

Adjourned to Monday evening, Dec. 1.

☞ Mr. McAfferty's first reading from Scott's Lady of the Lake will be given at Mr. Miner's rooms in the Myers' House tomorrow (Tuesday), evening. Ticket holders will please meet at half past seven promptly.

FIRST WISCONSIN CAVALRY.—Reports from this regiment have led to the conclusion that its losses have been so great as to seriously impair its efficiency for service. A recent report, however, shows this to be an error, and it now appears that there are present in the regiment 716 men, of whom 616 are fit for duty. Absent from duty, 11 officers and 272 men, making one less than a thousand now belonging to the regiment.

☞ The Ozaukee rioters are to be turned over to Gen. Pope, for such disposition as he may think proper to make of them. About fifty propose to enlist for three years, and three have been set at liberty who took but slight or unwilling part in the riot.

☞ Judge Doolittle is confined at home by sickness.

☞ Dr. Thornhill, of the 8th regiment, has been discharged from service.

☞ Mr. E. A. Tappen, a son of E. Arthur Tappen, the well-known New York merchant, died of consumption, at Madison, on the 26th ult. His disease was contracted in the army.

VOTE IN THE FOURTH REGIMENT.—The vote of companies C, E, F, and H, of the 4th regiment, at New Orleans, has been received. They give 31 for Potter, 7 for Brown; 28 for Sloan, 12 for Guppy; 33 for Bragg, 7 for Eldridge; 28 for E. L. Browne, or 120 republican, and 26 democratic.

HOW THE 25TH REGIMENT VOTED.—Returns have been received at the capitol from the vote of all the companies of the 25th regiment, scattered on the frontier of Minnesota. The vote foots up as follows: 10 for Sloan; 294 for Cobb, 33 for Simpson; 159 for Hanchett, 152 for Stoddard, or 463 republican, 185 democratic and independent, the bulk of the latter vote being given for Stoddard on local and personal rather than political grounds. On legislative candidates, the democrats have but about one hundred votes.

FURTHER RETURNS FROM THE FOURTH.—Returns from companies G and B, of the 4th regiment have been received. They give 2 for Potter, 1 for Brown; 5 for Sloan; 14 for Bragg; 13 for E. L. Browne, and 47 for Hanchett, or 81 republican, and 1 democratic.

☞ Herschell V. Johnson, the candidate on the Douglas ticket for vice-president two years ago, was recently elected to Jeff. Davis' senate from the state of Georgia.

☞ Over four hundred drafted men left Ozaukee on Wednesday for Milwaukee by the steamer Comet.

THE DRAFT IN CHICAGO.—The number of men to be drafted from Chicago is 3,157. The whole number of men in that city liable to do military duty, is 23,151. The number who have been enlisted is 2,445.

GOLD GOING DOWN.—The brokers in Chicago, on Saturday, after the New York dispatches were received, were unwilling to pay over 127a127½ for gold. Demand notes and silver were also declining. The latter is heavy at 118a120.

PROPRIETORS.

All kinds of Merchandise on Sale by the Piece, Package or Case

Also, at Retail, at from Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the present price of the Manufacturers.

The Fall and Winter Campaign is now Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE has got
The Lead and is BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the interior of Wisconsin, particularly of STAPLE GOODS.
Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.
We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of Domestic Goods,
consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Bags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.
Our stock of Foreign
FANCY & STAPLE GOODS
is twice as large as it ever was before, and much the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.
LADIES' CLOAKS.
The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of
SHAWLS
of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Brocha made.
LADIES' FURS!
Three thousand dollars worth of these goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.
Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,
&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of
TWO HUNDRED DOZEN
of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our orders some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful
SILK PLUSH HOODS, trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

Merchant Tailoring Department.

☞ Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
VESTINGS
and
FURNISHING GOODS,
to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENT in as good style as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.
READY-MADE CLOTHING
and
HAT AND CAP STORE.
This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of
and
GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS
to be found in any establishment in this city.
Particular attention is called to our immense stock of Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the case from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods
Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the New York Cash Store
before you buy your goods.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances: It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

JUSTICES BLANKS FOR SALE.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.
